Seasons Center Receives Grant from the Dickinson County Endowment Fund

SPENCER – Seasons Center for Behavioral Health has received $2,000 in grant funding from the Dickinson County Endowment Fund. The funding will be used by Seasons to host the 2018 Winter Games Kids Carnival. The carnival is designed to be an interactive, indoor event for children and their families to promote positive mental health through a family-friendly event.

"The activities offered at this event will include an inflatable bounce house, carnival games, photo booth, face painting, and more," said Katie Ping, Marketing and Event Coordinator at Seasons. "Staff from Seasons will also be available to answer questions, distribute educational materials, and provide information regarding services provided by Seasons and other community partners."

The Winter Games Kids Carnival will take place on Saturday, January 27, 2018 at Boji Bay Fun House & Pavilion in Milford, IA.

"Seasons is very appreciative of the support by the Dickinson County Endowment Fund for the annual Kids Carnival event," said Kim Scorza, CEO/President at Seasons. "The 2018 event will be the fifth annual carnival put on by Seasons at the Okoboji Winter Games."
