FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Seasons Center Receives $1,000 Grant from Clay County Convention & Visitors Bureau

Spencer, IA - Seasons Center for Behavioral Health has received a $1,000 grant from the Clay County Convention & Visitors Bureau to host a Kids' Carnival at Autumn's Center in September. The Kids' Carnival will celebrate the two-year anniversary of the opening of Autumn's Center and to promote positive mental health through a family-friendly event.

"Seasons is pleased to receive this funding from The Clay County Convention & Visitors Bureau to celebrate the two-year anniversary of Autumn's Center," said Kim Scorza, President/CEO of Seasons Center. "At Autumn's Center, children have a safe, secure and hope-filled environment so that they can recover from life's hurts."

Autumn's Center has served 1,416 children since it opened in October of 2016.
