

NEWS RELEASE

For more information, contact Katie Ping, Marketing & Events Coordinator at Seasons
Phone: 1-800-242-5101 | E-mail: kping@seasonscenter.org

31 October 2018

For Immediate Release

Auction for Autumn Raises over $28,000 for Northwest Iowa Children

ORANGE CITY, IA – On Saturday, October 27, 2018, 93 community members came together to raise slightly more than $28,000 in Orange City, Iowa at a dessert auction to support northwest Iowa children. Proceeds from this annual fundraiser will benefit Camp Autumn, a therapeutic camp for children ages 4-21 located near Sutherland, Iowa. The funds will specifically be used to help build a therapeutic art building at the camp. Camp Autumn, which opened in June 2017, provides a unique blend of therapy, skill development, and fun for those who have experienced trauma, abuse, loss, grief, parental substance abuse, divorce of parents, family violence, or those who have developmental conditions. Both Autumn's Center and Camp Autumn were named in honor and memory of Autumn Elgersma, of Orange City, Iowa who died on October 31, 2013, after being hospitalized due to the abuse she endured while in the care of her babysitter.

"We were very blessed to be able to come together again this year and celebrate Autumn's life and all the children we serve at our agency and specifically at Camp Autumn," said Kim Scorza, CEO/President of Seasons. "Without the support of the community it would be very difficult to care for children with behavioral health needs. We can't thank our supporters enough for all their support through the donation of their time, talent, and treasures."

Inside Prairie Winds Event Center in Orange City, 9 tables of business owners, community supporters, and agency partners bid on locally-made desserts, with sales reaching as high as $2,750 for a beautifully-decorated cake titled "Chocolate Lovers Delight" made and donated by Sara Crane Cakes of Orange City, Iowa. The auction was led by auctioneer, Don Krommendyk, from Hull, Iowa.

This year's desserts were donated by: Susie Hofman of Orange City; the Sugar Shack Bakery of Sioux City; Sara Crane Cakes of Orange City; Renee Rhamy of Alton; Blue Mountain Catering Company of Orange City; the Olive Garden of Sioux City; Sarah Weber of Orange City; Kim and Phil Scorza of Orange City; and Pat Buyert of Sioux Center.

"We are grateful for our wonderful dessert makers for their contributions to our annual fundraiser," said Katie Ping, Marketing and Events Coordinator at Seasons. "Each year, we are amazed by the beautiful creations these talented individuals donate."

The event was supported by local businesses through sponsorships. Sponsors included: Northwest Bank, Iowa State Bank, Orange City Area Health System, Primebank, Schelling Construction, Sioux Center Health, and Spencer Hospital.

"We can't thank our sponsors enough for partnering with us to help make this event such a success," said Scorza. "Your support will pay dividends well into the future with the children who receive quality services at Camp Autumn in 2019 and in years to come."

Seasons Center will continue the annual fundraiser next year, with a date set for Saturday, October 26, 2019.

Seasons is a non-profit organization and has been providing a broad range of psychiatric and behavioral health services to people and communities in Northwest Iowa since 1959. Seasons strives to provide exceptional care to children, families, and adults through skilled, dedicated, and passionate employees who use evidence-based treatment practices and innovative treatment techniques.

For more information on Seasons' services, please visit our website at: www.seasonscenter.org and Facebook page www.facebook.com/SeasonsCenterForBehavioralHealth

– 30 –

Autumn's Center, the first of its kind regional children's center, houses rooms and offices designated to care for children's behavioral health, including areas for psychiatric services, outpatient therapy, psychological testing, behavioral health intervention services, substance abuse counseling, parent education, and care coordination services. The center offers a child friendly and healing environment throughout the building.

Founded in 1959, Seasons Center for Behavioral Health continues to be a leading, comprehensive behavioral health center in the northwest region of Iowa. Offering a broad range of behavioral health Services, Seasons recognizes that investing in behavioral health is investing in a community's economic, education, health and human services systems. Seasons strives to empower individuals so they might become active, contributing members of their communities. For more information on Seasons' services, please visit www.seasonscenter.org or call 1-800-242-5101.

Avera is a regional partnership of health professionals who share support services to provide excellent care at 300 locations in 100 communities in eastern South Dakota and surrounding states. Our ministry, our people and our superior values distinguish Avera. We carry on the health care legacy of the Benedictine and Presentation Sisters, delivering care in an environment guided by our values of compassion hospitality and stewardship. Avera employs more than 13,500. Inpatient, outpatient and clinic visits totaled nearly 2.5 million in the last year, a number equal to more than twice the population of the Avera service area. For more information please visit www.avera.org.