END IT! for Autumn Color Run Set for April 27 in Orange City

Orange City, IA. – The 4th Annual END IT! for Autumn Color Run/Walk will take place on Saturday, April 27, 2019 at Veterans Park in Orange City, IA.

Last April over 300 adults and children participated in the 3rd END IT! for Autumn Color Run and $12,600 was raised for Camp Autumn. Services began at Camp Autumn in the summer of 2017 and in the summer of 2018, Camp Autumn served over 200 children.

The proceeds of the 4th Annual END IT! for Autumn Color Run will benefit Camp Autumn by providing scholarships for children to attend this unique therapeutic camp.

“Camp Autumn provides a fun, safe, and healing camp experience for children with behavioral health concerns,” said Christina Eggink-Postma, VP of Program Coordination and Compliance at Seasons. “We are so grateful to the organizers of the Color Run and the many community members who attend the event for making Camp Autumn possible for so many kids!”

Registrations are now being accepted for the April 27 Color Run by visiting <https://bit.ly/2DacS0m>. Those who register before April 17 will get the early bird price and a long-sleeve shirt. The run begins at 9:30 AM in Veterans Park. A free kids' carnival and food will follow the event.

The END IT! for Autumn Color Run is a fundraiser coordinated by community members: Cindy Cleveringa, Amy Cleveringa and Erin Emmelkamp.

“The END IT! for Autumn Color Run is named in honor and memory of Autumn Elgersma, but child abuse has many names. It is the name of every child who is a victim of abuse,” said Cindy Cleveringa, one of the organizations for the END IT! for Autumn Color Run. “Our goal is to not only raise money for scholarships for youth to be able to attend Camp Autumn, but also to create awareness of child abuse. We need to support children and families who are affected by child abuse. Sadly, child abuse can happen in any community. Join us as we stand together to end child abuse!”
