Seasons Center Receives Funding from Alliant Energy Foundation

Spencer, IA. – Seasons Center for Behavioral Health gratefully received a $1,500 grant from the Alliant Energy Foundation. Funds from the grant are being used to purchase resources and tools for Seasons' therapists and counselors to use with children and families.

Resources being purchased include updated curriculum and workbooks, as well as tools and materials such as interactive games, children's books, art supplies, and DVDs.

"We're excited for the opportunity to expand our therapists' resources with the generous funds from the Alliant Energy Foundation," says Kim Scorza, Executive Director, Seasons. "Thank you to Alliant Energy for their continued commitment to Seasons and the people we serve."
