Seasons Center Welcomes Seven New Providers

Spencer, IA. – Seasons Center for Behavioral Health is glad to welcome seven new behavioral health service providers to their team.

Four therapists joined Seasons' outpatient therapy department. Jessica Mendel, Jessi Christenson and Dana Huberg see clients in Spencer. Jim Power meets with clients at Seasons' Estherville office.

With an increase in the need for community based services, Jessica Ulrich and April Woudstra joined the CBS department. Ulrich works out of Seasons' Spirit Lake office and Woudstra out of the Sheldon office.

Nicole Wesselink joined the substance abuse staff, and sees clients in Spencer.

"We're so pleased to add additional staff members to our well-rounded team," says Dan Ries, Director of Finance and Human Resources, Seasons. "Our staff is comprised of well-educated providers with excellent experience who are able to provide quality behavioral health services to our clients."
