For Immediate Release

Seasons Center to Hold Ribbon Cutting

Sheldon, IA. – Seasons Center for Behavioral Health will hold a ribbon cutting at their new Sheldon office location on Friday, November 15. There will be an open house at the facility from 9:30-10:30 a.m., with the official ribbon cutting at 10 a.m.

“We’re excited for the opportunity to welcome the community into our new space,” says Kim Scorza, Executive Director, Seasons. “We’re grateful to have a space in which we can serve our clients close to home. We extend a special thank you to Poppema-Sikma Construction for their work on the renovation and their willingness to help us move to our new location.”

The public is invited to attend the event and walk through the newly-renovated office space. Refreshments will be served. Seasons is located at 604 Park Street in Sheldon.
