Seasons Center Receives Funding for Specialized Substance Abuse Treatment Services

Spencer, IA. – Seasons Center for Behavioral Health will begin offering specialized substance abuse treatment services through funding from Lakes Area Decat.

The specialized services will include emergency substance abuse evaluations, mental health and trauma screenings, outpatient services, case management, and family team meetings. Seasons will also participate in ongoing communication and coordination with the Department of Human Services (DHS).

Individuals eligible for these services are limited to DHS clients living in Clay, Dickinson, Osceola, and O'Brien counties. Referrals will only be generated through DHS with the service start date set for February 1, 2014.

"We know that the need for substance abuse and mental health services is growing, and we're grateful for the opportunity to serve individuals with Lakes Area Decat and DHS," says Brenna Koedam, LMHC, IADC, Substance Abuse Supervisor, Seasons.

For more information on these services, please contact Sarah Heinrichs, Support Care Coordinator, Seasons, at 1-800-242-5151 ext. 1096 or sheinrichs@seasonscenter.org.
