For Immediate Release

Seasons Center Receives Grant to implement NW Iowa Safety Net Care Coordination Project.

Spencer, IA. – In partnership with Avera and Promise Community Health Center, Seasons Center has been awarded funding from the Iowa Primary Care Association in the amount of $200,000.

Seasons Center will place Behavioral Health Consultants at Avera Medical Group Spencer and Promise Community Health Center (Sioux Center), with a focus of integrating behavioral health into care delivery in the primary care setting.

“We are excited to roll out a model of care in the primary care setting that has been proven to improve patient outcomes,” says Kim Scorza, Seasons Executive Director. “We are grateful to the Iowa Primary Care Association for this funding and for the opportunity to further enhance our partnerships with Avera and Promise Community Health Center.”
