Seasons Center Receives Funding for Specialized Substance Abuse Treatment Services

Spencer, IA. – Seasons Center for Behavioral health will begin offering specialized substance abuse treatment services through funding from the Sioux DCAT project.

The specialized services will include emergency substance abuse evaluations, mental health and trauma screenings, outpatient services, care coordination, and family conferencing meetings. Seasons will participate in on-going communication and coordination with the Department of Human Services (DHS) as a key component of the care coordination services.

“We know that the need for substance abuse and mental health services is growing, and we’re grateful for the opportunity to serve individuals with Sioux DCAT and DHS,” says Brenna Koedam, LMHC, IADC from Seasons.

Seasons has been providing specialized substance abuse services since February 2014 through a similar contract with the Lakes DCAT project, covering the counties of Clay, Dickinson, O’Brien and Osceola.
