FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Seasons Center Receives $3,281 Grant from the Palo Alto County Gaming Development Corporation

SPENCER – Seasons Center for Behavioral Health has received a $3,281 grant from the Palo Alto County Gaming Development Corporation. The funding will be used to purchase additional equipment and supplies to support services offered at their new location in Emmetsburg.

In September 2016, Seasons relocated to the campus of the Palo Alto County Hospital in Emmetsburg. The new equipment will include computers, phones, and other networking items to support communication and information sharing.

“Seasons is pleased to receive this funding from Palo Alto County Gaming Development Corporation,” says Kim Scorza, President/CEO. “These items will support our clinicians in providing high-quality services to the residents of Palo Alto County.”
